DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 11 is objected to because of the following informalities: the recitation of "grassy carbon" is improper. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 8-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Hunter (US006387331B1).

With respect to independent claim 8, Hunter discloses an apparatus (Fig. 7) of the recited type (column 6, lines 11-15) comprising a sample holder 10 for holding a sample, an excitation light beam generator for generating an excitation light beam 50 to irradiate the sample therewith so as to emit fluorescence or phosphorescence from the sample, and a photometer 56 for detecting the emitted fluorescence or phosphorescence, wherein the sample holder is a plate having a through-hole 12 therein, an excitation light generator side opening portion of the through-hole is equal to or larger in area than a photometer side opening portion of the through-hole (Fig. 6), and areas of the excitation light generator side opening portion and the photometer side opening portion are equal to or larger than a cross-sectional area of the excitation light beam in the vicinity of the sample (also Fig. 6).

With respect to dependent claim 9, the through-hole 12 in the apparatus of Hunter has a shape with the recited property (Fig. 6).

With respect to dependent claim 10, the through-hole 12 in the apparatus of Hunter may have at least one of the recited forms (column 6, lines 27 and 35).

With respect to dependent claim 11, the sample holder 10 in the apparatus of Hunter is made of at least one of the recited materials (claim 11).

Response to Arguments

4. The amendment filed September 24, 2003 has been entered.
5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-7 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. The reply is not considered to be in compliance with 37 CFR 1.111(c) in view of the failure to acknowledge "the state of the art disclosed by the references cited...."
6. The declaration under 37 CFR 1.132 filed September 24, 2003 is sufficient to overcome the rejection of claims 1-4 based upon Schellenberger et al.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
